THE ARTIST

Bahrain’s new wave, one confession at a time.

sauvachi is an independent rapper, singer and songwriter from Manama, Bahrain — one of the most distinctive emerging voices in the Gulf’s alternative hip-hop scene. Blending rap, R&B and soul, his music pairs melodic, trap-leaning production with writing that doesn’t flinch: songs about moving on, ambition, and the quiet weight of growing up between worlds.

Drawing on influences like D Block Europe, Lithe and 451, he’s built a sound that’s moody yet immediate. His catalogue spans standout cuts like “4 BRICKS DOWN,” “HOLD UP,” “CARBON” and “CHROME” — several past the quarter-million-stream mark — with collaborators including Sadra, NST and Augxst. Tracks like “mont blanc” show his more personal side: writing about closing one chapter and stepping into the next.

Entirely self-driven, sauvachi writes and shapes his own material while turning a small, devoted following into a global audience — roughly 144,000 monthly listeners and climbing, with real strength across the Middle East, Europe and Southeast Asia.
